Richard J. Byington CRT is a graduate of Edinboro University of PA., with a degree in Criminal Justice. He completed his postgraduate studies in detection of deception at Reid College in 1983. Rich has conducted over 20,000 interviews and interrogations in the United States as well as overseas. In 2010 he was instrumental in working with The Innocence Project in obtaining the release of an innocent man from jail. Rich is particularly adept at designing specialized training courses for agencies that deal with unique circumstances.

Here's what a past attendee said "Rich, the bearded-guy" Byington - great interaction with the class, brought his real-life experience to the class and that made it great. Will send more officers to him and attend the class.
